UNITED ARTS OF CENTRAL FLORIDA PASSES $1 MILLION MARK TOWARD $1.57 MILLION CAMPAIGN GOAL

ORLANDO, Fla. — March 20, 2013 — United Arts of Central Florida announced today that it has received pledges totaling more than $1 million, or 66 percent, of its $1.57 million collaborative fundraising campaign goal. That places the campaign 30 percent ahead of last year at the same point in time.

The 2013 campaign runs from February 1 through April 30. This year's campaign featured a strong early bird effort that began in late November and secured $505,000 in pledges, or 31 percent of the total goal.

"Everyone is working hard, and we're maintaining strong forward momentum," said Scott Bowman, chairman of United Arts' development committee. "But we have a lot to do in the last six weeks of this campaign, and we need everyone's help to reach our goal and really support these important institutions."

Donations from individuals, corporations, foundations and workplace giving campaigns during the three-month campaign provide funding for a range of nonprofit arts, sciences and history organizations in Lake, Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties.

"The community is clearly rising to assist us, and we are so grateful," Bowman said. "We hope everyone in Central Florida will consider supporting this campaign. Their dollars will stay local and support more than 50 local arts, sciences and history organizations that serve our community and our school kids."

During the campaign, donors may designate their contributions to one or more of 17 cultural organizations that partner with United Arts to raise funds during the campaign or to another cultural group of their choice. They may also give to United Arts' Arts for ALL fund, which supports more than 50 local groups, including cornerstone institutions like the Orlando Museum of Art, the Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra, the Orlando Ballet and the Orlando Science Center, as well as school-based education programs that are often on the budgetary chopping block.

"Our ultimate goal is to serve the community, to support our cultural partners in providing interesting, challenging, exciting experiences for our fellow Central Floridians," said Flora Maria Garcia, United Arts president and CEO.

About the campaign

- The goal for the collaborative campaign is $1,573,194. United Arts combines the individual fundraising goals of its cultural partners to determine the overall goal.
- United Arts cultural partners are eligible for a 15 percent matching grant made available through the contributions of trustee level donors, who give $100,000 or more, and corporate donors.
- For contributions of $50 or more, donors receive a complimentary one-year subscription to Orlando Arts Magazine. For contributions of $100 or more, donors also receive the United ArtsCard, a buy-one-ticket-get-one-free and discount card that connects donors to cultural offerings throughout Central Florida.
