Research Notes:

- These Creative Industries data are based solely on active U.S. businesses that are registered with Dun & Bradstreet. Because not all businesses register, our analyses indicate an under-representation of arts businesses (particularly those that are nonprofit arts organizations and individual artists). The data in this report, therefore, should be considered conservative.
- To define the Creative Industries, Americans for the Arts selected 644 8-digit Standard Industrial Classification codes that represent for-profit and nonprofit arts-centric businesses (out of more than 18,500 codes representing all industries).
- Reports for all 435 U.S. Congressional Districts, the 50 states and the District of Columbia, the 7,500 state legislative districts, and all 3,143 U.S. counties—as well as a full suite of user tools and a comprehensive list of the industries included in this analysis—are available for download at www.AmericansForTheArts.org/CreativeIndustries.

<sup>1</sup> After-market addition: Due to the unique concentration of artists and performers in this region, with the addition of area theme parks, the high number of creative industries and artists positions the Orlando region as a center for innovation and creativity.

Orange County's creative industries account for 4.3% of the 91,903 total businesses and 3.6% of the 744,204 people they employ, higher than national average of 3.9% of all businesses and 1.9% of all employment. - Source: Americans for the Arts, with three major area theme parks, and United Arts of Central Florida, January 2015
