UNITED ARTS PROVIDES UA101 WORKSHOPS THIS SUMMER

ORLANDO – May 2, 2018 – United Arts of Central Florida invites arts and cultural organizations to attend “United Arts 101” workshops to learn about free services offered by United Arts.

From free event publicity via OrlandoAtPlay.com and Orlando Arts Magazine, to funding for nonprofit arts events and arts education programs, attendees will gain an understanding of how to access these services and use them for their benefit. Two of the workshops will have a Spanish translator available for questions.

The first workshop on May 24 is presented in partnership with the City of Orlando, and will include a segment on the Mayor’s Matching Grant program. All workshops will include information about United Arts’ mini-grant, and a brief overview of other available grant programs.

Upcoming Workshops

RSVPs required two business days in advance; go to www.UnitedArts.cc/United-Arts-Events to sign up, or contact Jessica Peebles at Jessica@UnitedArts.cc or 407.628.0333 x228.

About United Arts of Central Florida

United Arts is a collaboration of individuals, businesses, governments and school districts, foundations, arts and cultural organizations, and artists. Its mission is to enrich communities by investing in arts, science and history. United Arts serves residents and visitors in Lake, Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties through more than 60 local arts, science and history organizations. It raises and distributes funds for these cultural groups and provides management, administrative and advisory services. Since 1989, United Arts has invested more than $145 million in Central Florida's arts and culture.
